Prophetic Word –June 07, 2009

There's many this morning that just feel like everything's out of control. You're fearful, you're resentful; you're without hope in some areas of your life. You just can't see a way out; you're giving up, you're giving in. And the Lord would say to us this morning, "I am in control. Was it not my word that spoke the very Universe into being? Was it not my word that created the earth that you live in? Was it not my breath that gave you life? Was it not my will that sent my only Son to die for you that you could be saved? Why then are you perturbed? Why then do you allow circumstances to control you? Why do you look around in destitution when I have come to give you restoration? I would say to you today my, beloved, I have not given up control, I have not given in control, and I have not given over control. I am the God of the Universe, I am in control. Lay aside your bickering, lay aside your fretfulness, lay aside your anxieties and your worries and know that I am God. I am above all things, I am above all creatures, I am all nations, I am above all people, I am above all and I am in control. Turn your problems to me let me walk with you through them. Let me show you a better way than the worry that you are allowing your lives to be devoured with. Don't give up, don't give in, don't give over. Go forth in my power, go forth in my light. Let the world see in you that I am in control. Let the world know through you that there is hope. Let the world understand through you that my love has never dwindled. So this morning my children just relax, just bask, just live in the constant knowledge that I, your God, am in control."
